LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Latest periodicals at Monmonier's.

The thermometer at Seaman's store registered 90 yesterday.

Hon. Mark Smith left Tuesday on a still hunt.

William Kieke and wife are expected to return in about two weeks.

Buy a Louisiana lottery ticket at Jos. Lippert's barber shop.

Monmonier has a full supply of school supplies.

Full-sized mattresses, $5, at Sydow & Kieke's.

The school bell has a very pleasant sound every morning.

Oil, needles, attachments and parts for repairing all the leading sewing machines at Yapple's Candy Factory.

Man, born of woman, is of few days and full of—bug juice, every chance he gets.

Remember the agency for Clark's "O. N. T." spool cotton is at Sydow & Kieke's.

Wm. Land, of Tevis, Perrin and Land Cattle Company, arrived last evening from the Babacomari.

A nice line of white and colored bedspreads just received at Sydow & Kieke's.

Our Governor has been injudicious enough to rush into print. It would have been far better to have kept out.

As far as heard from the smile of Dame Fortune hasn't struck any of our lottery players this month.

The D. M. Osborne mowers and the Halladay windmills for sale at Wolcott's.

No rain yesterday and indications for a shower to-day are somewhat like the business end of a mule—uncertain.

The Chiricahuas are said to be a paradise for sportsmen and several hunting parties are preparing to visit that locality.

Stevenson & Walker are the authorized agents for Louisiana lottery tickets in this city. By investing $1 you have a chance of winning a fortune.

Does it necessarily follow that when a man is shaking a pair o' dice he is causing a commotion in the celestial regions?

Hon. Geo. H. Daily is in Tucson and is expected to arrive in Tombstone in a few days. It is not known whether Mrs. Daily will accompany him.

Chas. Gage and wife arrived from Sonora last evening. Mr. Gage says that at present he will not attempt to establish a stage line to that country as it would not pay expenses.

A Souvenir.

Ben Pascoe, on Thursday last, when in the Silver Belt office, knowing him to be an old Californian, was asked, "Were you personally acquainted with the late David S. Terry?" To which he replied, "I cannot say we were on intimate terms, but I became familiar with his knife, which he always carried and was lonesome when without." Showing us his hand, which revealed a scar near the wrist, he remarked, "That is a souvenir received from Terry in Carson City, Nevada, in '61, when arresting a deadly blow he was aiming at another."—Silver Belt.

Fortune's Smile.

The following is the list of winning numbers in the last drawing of the Louisiana lottery, as received yesterday by Stevenson & Walker:

Prize.	No.	Am't.
1	8,174	300,000
2	39,526	100,000
3	62,159	50,000
4	27,124	25,000
5	33,542	10,000
6	58,673	10,000
7	8,183	5,000
8	19,019	5,000
9	85,024	5,000
10	89,328	5,000
11	38,500	5,000

There is no question but that the Sonora trade will be of great importance to this county and this city in particular. Capital is steadily being invested in that country and new and valuable properties are being opened up. Tombstone has in the past been the center for supplies and that it will continue as such seems to admit of no doubt. To our present depression in trade the Sonora trade is of great assistance and its benefits to our city are very encouraging.

The Phenix Herald says the camp meeting at Norton's grove is largely attended and it is estimated that from 600 to 1,500 were present one night recently. Much interest is manifested in the services, over forty persons having been drawn to the altar for greater spiritual comfort. The best of order is maintained and Parson Finley says that in all his camp meeting experience from South Carolina to California he has not known such circumstances.

Wm. Heyn, of the hardware department of the Cochise H. & T. Co., will accompany Mr. Ross to the saw mill in the Chiricahuas this morning. Mr. Heyn goes loaded for alligators and hippopotamuses, but is equally ready for any bear or buffaloes that may dispute his right of way. He will remain about two weeks and will undoubtedly have a jolly good time.

In the case of the Territory vs. Geo. W. F. Cook yesterday the defendant was bound over to appear before the next grand jury, the amount being $300. He was unable to furnish bonds and will reside under the immediate and watchful care of Jailer Farrington until next November. The woman is able to walk but is quite severely beaten and kicked.

The final adjustment of the Old Guard property seems not to have yet been made. Yesterday a mortgage for $12,000 turned up and suit has been entered in the district court for the adjustment of the same. Col. J. A. Zabriskie is attorney for the plaintiff. This is a new and interesting development in this somewhat celebrated case.

John M. Roberts, a pioneer of both California and Arizona, and a resident on the Agua Fria, 35 miles east of Prescott, died last Friday.—Phenix Herald.

HE IS A GOOD MAN(?)

"For He Has Said It, and 'Tis Greatly to His Credit."

As the DAILY EPITAPH has been ventilating the actions of our Mistitship lately, we publish his defense, over his own signature, which appeared in the Phenix Herald of the 9th inst.

PHENIX, Sept. 9, 1889.

I have heretofore refrained from taking notice of attacks on myself, either as an official or individually, but the recent misrepresentations of the Tombstone EPITAPH and the Phenix Gazette are of such a nature that they may mislead people. I therefore ask all fair minded people to read the official correspondence as published in the Herald of Sept. 6th, and the Gazette of Sept. 7th, before believing that I have "deliberately given out a lie." In justice to General Churchill I will say that he did not know of the letters I had written until afterwards, nor did I ask his advice in relation to them.

The evening before writing the libelous editorials of the 7th and 8th inst., the editor of the Gazette, John Dunbar, admitted to me that he had no idea that we could gain admission under this Constitutional Convention. He also admitted to me that the lack of any control or limitation to the amount of expense that the convention might incur was a good objection to the convention, and that the opinions of the Attorney General and Assistant Attorney General fully justified me in not calling the convention.

At that time I told said editor that before the trial of the Auditor case, I had fully advised Judge Kibbey of all the opinions that I had that related to the subject, including those referred to, believing that it was only fair to the Judge that he should know them.

In relation to my Louisiana life, I went there in commercial business in October 1865, and lived there until 1872, nearly seven years. During that time I was U. S. Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue from about April 1867 to September 1867, and was U. S. Assessor of Internal Revenue of the New Orleans District from about August 1868 to April 1869, being about one year in all, and my record at the Treasury Department is first-class as any one will find upon proper inquiry. General Grant having afterwards offered me the Supervisors of Internal Revenue of all the Southern States.

Except to vote I never took part in politics in Louisiana during the seven years I lived there. In justice to the gentlemen whose names have been dragged in as well as to myself, I will say that no man has contributed a dollar towards my expenses in connection with the Governorship.

To characterize the above editor I will only say that the man who privately professes to be a strong Republican, yet daily grinds out ideas directly the reverse of his belief and daily attacks members of the party to which he claims allegiance, is fully equal to the libelous attacks referred to and the many others not before referred to. It is part of his business.

Thanking you in advance for the use of the Herald columns I remain,
Very Respectfully,
LEWIS WOLFLEY.

Hon. J. P. Hoyt, formerly Governor of Arizona, and Hon. T. L. Stiles, late of Tucson, have been nominated for the Supreme bench by the Republican convention in the new State of Washington.—Citizen.

Dry Ore Playing the Piper.

Our special report of the Leadville ore market, says the New York Engineering and Mining Journal of a late date, brings early confirmation of our statement that the exclusion of Mexican fluxing ores under new instructions, would result in a small advance in the price of Colorado fluxing ores and a decline in the price of dry ores; or in other words, that the smelters, being unable to secure a sufficient supply of lead ore, would charge the dry ore mines a higher smelting rate. Our correspondent says: "A sharp decline has taken place in dry ores. Heretofore this class has sold with a reduction of $11.50 to $13 for smelting charge, whereas, now these range from $13 to $16 working charge."

The new treasury instructions, according to Colorado reports, have already resulted in curtailing the entry of Mexican ores to the extent of 49 to 50 per cent. As the effect of this becomes felt, the dry ore mines will find that they, who can least afford it, are being taxed to enable the fluxing ore mines to get an additional profit, when it is well known that they are now getting more for the lead in their ore than it brings the smelter in the bullion. The silver miners will soon learn where their interest lie, and what kind of protection benefits them.

Lost.

The work of removing the old Rescue building will commence in a few days. The specifications call for the commencement of work within ten days after the filing of the supplemental bond.

Notice.

All parties are hereby warned not to give credit to my wife, Mrs. W. W. Fetterman, after this date, as I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by her.

Maison Dore.

This old time and popular restaurant still maintains its position as a favorite place for our citizens to regale themselves on all the table delicacies, which are prepared in a tasteful manner and served by polite and attentive waiters. This restaurant makes a specialty of broiled steaks and cutlets, and imports coffee of extra quality, thus being able to furnish the best cup of coffee obtainable in the city. Fresh fish every day, and an elegant chicken dinner every Sunday.

Mr. Moore, the Post Master at Bradshaw, Va., after reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases for colic and three for diarrhea with perfect satisfaction. One dose gave relief in every case but one, that was a bad case of colic and required the second dose. I have handled a great deal of patent medicine as agent and for my own use, but never tried any that gave as good results as 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.' For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by H. J. Peto.

Swept by the Tide of Popularity.

To the topmost pinnacle of success, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands a shining proof of what genuine merit, backed by the living force of proven facts, can attain. The North and South American continents, Europe, Australia, the West Indies, Guatemala and Mexico have all contributed wide patronage and testimony of the most favorable kind—but unsolicited—to swell the reputation of this sterling remedy. Among the maladies for which the most convincing public and professional testimony proves that it is a benign curative, are chills and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, debility, kidney and bladder complaints. It mitigates the infirmities of age, hastens convalescence, has a tendency to prevent ill consequences from exposure and exhaustion. Persons of sedentary habits and laborious occupations will find it an ever useful tonic.

Cholera in Michigan.

Dr. E. D. Larke, of Rogers City, Michigan, says the epidemic of last year in Presque Isle County, in which so many persons lost their lives, was choleric dysentery instead of cholera as first reported. He used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says it succeeded, where all other remedies failed. Not a single case was lost in which it was used. This Remedy is the most reliable and most successful medicine known for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhea and bloody flux. 25 and 50 cents bottles for sale by H. J. Peto.

TO CATTLE BUYERS.
